

This event will take place online via Zoom.
Please register at
centerforthehumanities.org

March 19–20, 2021
10 AM–7 PM (EDT)

Organized by Charles W. Mills &
Linda Martín Alcoff

Pioneers of Africana Philosophy

Speakers

Dwight Murph (Philosophy, John Jay College, CUNY)

Howard McGary (Emeritus, Philosophy, Rutgers University)

Leonard Harris (Philosophy, Purdue University)

John H. McClendon III (Philosophy, Michigan State University)

Bill E. Lawson (Philosophy, Emeritus Professor at the University of Memphis)

Bernard Boxill (Emeritus, Philosophy, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill)

Kathryn Sophia Belle (Philosophy & African American Studies, Pennsylvania State University)

Joy James (Humanities, Williams College)

Albert Mosley (Emeritus, Philosophy, Smith College)

Frank Kirkland (Philosophy, Hunter College & The Graduate Center, CUNY)

Robert Gooding-Williams (Philosophy, and African American and African Diaspora Studies, Columbia University)

Derrick Darby (Philosophy, Rutgers University)

Souleymane Bachir Diagne (French & Philosophy, African Studies, Columbia University)

Mickaella Perina (Philosophy, University of Massachusetts, Boston)

John Pittman (Philosophy, John Jay College, CUNY)

Paget Henry (Sociology and Africana Studies, Brown University)

Lucius Outlaw (Philosophy & African American and Diaspora Studies, Vanderbilt University)

Alfred Prettyman (History, Ramapo College of New Jersey)

Co-sponsors

The Center for the Humanities, the Philosophy Program, the Institute for Research on the African Diaspora in the Americas and the Caribbean (IRADAC), and the Africana Studies' Certificate Program at The Graduate Center, CUNY, together with the APA Committee on the Status of Black Philosophers, present a conference on Pioneers of Africana Philosophy.